Paramjit Singh v. Kulwant Singh and another

None for the petitioner.
Mr Kulwant Singh Boparai, Advocate for the respondents.

This petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of habeas corpus for release of Ramandeep Kaur. The petitioner has alleged that he and Ramandeep Kaur were known to each other for the last 2 years and they had developed deep love and intimacy with each other and intended to marry. The marriage between them was solemnized on 28.9.2007 at Balmiki Mandir, Sector 24, Chandigarh. The same, it is stated, was against the wishes of the respondents. The marriage certificate dated 28.9.2007 issued by Sivananda Divine Mission (Gurukul) Regd. 67, Industrial Area, Phase-I, Chandigarh, has been placed on record as Annexure P3. Besides, photographs showing the solemnization of the marriage have been placed on record as Annexure P4. A reference has also been made to the affidavit dated 28.9.2007 (Annexure P5) deposed by Ramandeep Kaur wherein she has inter alia stated that she has solemnized her marriage with Paramjit Singh of her own free will and consent.

On 5.10.2007 notice of motion was issued to the respondents for 19.10.2007. They were also directed to produce Amandeep Kaur (sic. Ramandeep Kaur) in Court. Both the respondents as also Ramandeep Kaur are present in Court and are identified by their counsel – Sh Kulwant Singh Boparai. Ramandeep Kaur has stated that she is residing with her parents (respondents-1 and 2) of her own free will and desire and she wants to reside with them. She has also stated that she does not want to reside with the petitioner – Paramjit Singh. She has further stated that she has never resided with him.

In the aforenoticed circumstances, the writ in the nature of habeas corpus is not liable to be issued. Consequently, the criminal writ petition is dismissed.
